Summary

Hey there, I'm Himamshu! I'm a person that thrives on cooking up ideas that turn pain into a product. My projects have almost always arisen from solving problems that I see in my daily life. I take initiative and work towards bringing measurable positive change, and innovation into whatever I'm working on. I truly believe that team work is dream work. I'm comfortable building end to end solutions with technologies like React.js, Node.js, Firebase Auth, etc. I have worked with A.I. tools to bring efficiency into my work and bring my ideas into life.
